DEAR MADAM:—

As a resident of this house you may call “No. 4000 John”—THE WORLD’S main office—and ask for the Telephone Advertising Department.

Dictate your “want ad” over the wire and it will appear in THE WORLD next morning.

Between that date and the end of the current month you will receive the bill for the “ad” at exactly the same rate as if you had brought the “ad” to the office in person.

During 19 4 THE WORLD received 95,000 such small advertisements over the telephone.

THE WORLD assumes all risk of the abuse of this convenience.

Any “want” of the home may be conveniently supplied in this way.

THE WORLD’S circulation in New York City is over a million a month more than that of any other paper, and advertising in it brings results.

If you want help, a situation, have board or rooms to offer, or wish to buy or sell anything, telephone to “4000 John.”

A WORLD Want Ad will help you to supply almost any want in Domestic, Professional or Business life.

ACCLAIM.

The EVENING WORLD is New York's great HOME paper.

THE PROOF.

The great stores of New York take more space for advertising in the EVENING WORLD than in any other New York newspaper, morning or evening.

It leads all others.

If the great merchants spend hundreds of thousands in evidence of their faith you may accept the statement as a fact.

The EVENING WORLD is clean, bright, entertaining for adults and educating for children.

It is always sane—it appeals to intelligence, never to ignorant prejudice.

Margaret Hubbard Ayer, Nixola Greeley Smith and Alice Rohe, T. E. Powers, Long, Flinn, Robert Edgren, work exclusively for the EVENING WORLD readers.

The EVENING WORLD contains a serial story every day, and every Saturday a complete novel.

THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Typographically, pictorially and for the quality of its contents the SUNDAY WORLD MAGAZINE surpasses all its contemporaries. It is educational, instructive and interesting. Among the writers who contribute to its columns may be mentioned Kate Carew, the brilliant woman interviewer and caricaturist ; O. Henry, the satirist ; Finlay Peter Dunne (" Mr. Dooley "); Roy L. McCardell, the humorist ; James Creelman, Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn ; Paul West, Earl Mayo and Nixola Greeley Smith.

Fiction by the foremost authors of the day is a regular feature. Stories recently printed were from the pens of Owen Oliver, William Hamilton Osborne, B. Fletcher Robinson and Seumas McManus.

On the staff of special contributors are Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A. ; Rev. William J. Dawson and others.

C. De Fornaro, Archie Gunn, Dan Smith, Louis Biedermann, Gene Carr and the famous cartoonist, G. G. Bush, are among the artists whose work is to be found in it.

The circulation of the SUNDAY WORLD to-day is 50,000 in excess of last year.

The Comic Section contains the work of the best humorous artists and is constantly improving.

THE SUNDAY WORLD WANT DIRECTORY

More than 250,000 small "want" advertisements are printed annually in the fifty-two issues of the Sunday World alone.

To accommodate the enormous list a special section of the Sunday World, consisting of from 12 to 16 pages, is exclusively devoted to "Wants," arranged and indexed, so that the reader may readily find what is sought in the 5,000 to 7,000 small ads printed each Sunday.

These "ads" are left at the World's main and branch offices, at the District Messenger offices, at branch advertising agencies, sent in by mail, and telephoned directly to "4000 John."

No extra charge is made in any instance.

Over each classification in every issue of the paper the cost per line for a single insertion is printed.

Better rates are offered for more than one insertion of any "Want Ad."

These "repeat" rates will be furnished on request at any advertising agency or branch office, or any American District Telegraph office.
